

Strengthening & Sustaining Ohio's Suicide Prevention Coalitions (SSOSPC):
Strengths-Based Transformational Leadership Study Group

Agenda July 14, 2002

Coaching Your Coalition

Learning outcomes for July: Participants will be able to

- Identify ways to keep strengths-based concepts woven into coalition engagement
- Explore the Appreciative Inquiry model for coaching coalition leaders
- Recognize the 34 Talents in others
- Explore Strategic Doing as a way to put goals into action

I. Introduction Activity:

- A. Celebrate the Positive: Something positive you experienced recently (Break Out #1- Practicing asking questions)
- B. Share positives from your partner
- C. Most exciting upcoming plans for your coalition

II. Storytelling: Success Stories from the other Strength-based cohorts.

- A. Fostering Positivity with core leadership
- B. Keeping Strengths concepts in the forefront

III. Coaching Model – Appreciative Inquiry model (it's the questions you ask)

- A. Basics of Appreciative Inquiry
- B. Sharing your vision: Break out #2 : Ask Appreciative questions on your last journal entry on the vision for your coalition.

IV. Next Steps: Building Strengths-based coalitions

- A. How well do you know the 34 Strengths?
- B. Practice Strengths spotting in your cohort (Break Out #3)

V. Strengths-based engagement and participation:

- A. Moving beyond participation in meetings
- B. Exploring Strategic Doing: <https://strategicdoing.net/intro/>
- C. Making Micro commitments. – celebrate when they get stuff done

VI. Next Steps: Preparing to make a strategic plan for your coalition

For next time: In lieu of a journal entry, prepare to share for 2-3 minutes with the group on your learning the past 8 months:

- What has impacted your thinking and doing in your coalition work?
- Where are you leveraging and developing your talents into strengths?
- Report back on your micro-commitment